

Great Lakes Bombers Elite Baseball

Program Beliefs:

- Players seek experiences that build self-esteem
- Optimism enhances a player's performance and learning
- Diversity is the key to a player's learning and growth
- Players learn best when their entire support system is part of the process
- The program must have an environment of respect and collaboration where motivated players can excel
- Players must strive for excellence with a sense of urgency
- Physical and Mental training are both key elements to success